About Tessenie

Tessenie is an international plus size model, digital influencer and stylist. With an organic reach of over 30K followers, Tessenie is one of the top influencers in the Canadian plus size fashion community. Tessenie has worked with various local and international brands on social media campaigns and has become a favourite of international junior plus brands. As a Jamaican native, Tessenie brings a unique flavour and an authentic Caribbean vibe to her community through a fusion of bright colours, bold prints and classy silhouettes. With over 5 years in modelling, Tessenie has developed a special skill for creating visual content that engages and influences her followers. Tessenie is relatable and her natural charm along with her creativity and drive makes her confident that she will become one of the most influential brands in the fashion industry.
